

Unlicensed Engine Department

Unlicensed Junior Engineer (Base Salary $45,175-$46,156)

Unlicensed Junior Engineers will perform engineering systems maintenance and repair work. Have overall responsibility for engineering systems that may be assigned to him/her. Keep required records, logs, and reports. Stands engine room watches at sea or in port as required. Stand security /engine watch. The Junior Engineer will assist in ship fueling operations.

Possess a current and valid United States Coast Guard Merchant Mariners Credential endorsed with:

- Qualified Member of the Engineering Department (QMED) – Any Rating (Holds all ratings within the QMED) or Unlicensed Junior Engineer endorsement.

Oiler (Base Salary $38,463-$39,294)

Perform engine room watches at sea or in port; monitors and records gage readings; assists the higher rated engineers in starting and operating machinery; cleans around machinery. Oilers perform routine servicing of machinery, including lubricating and cleaning, assists in the maintenance, repair, and overhaul of machinery. Loads engineering department supplies and cleans spaces. Assist in ship fueling operations.

Possess a current and valid United States Coast Guard Merchant Mariners Credential endorsed with:

- Qualified Member of the Engineering Department (QMED) – Any Rating (Holds all ratings within the QMED) or Oiler endorsement.

General Vessel Assistant (Base Salary $33,187-$33,914)

General Vessel Assistants (GVA) performs work in the Deck, Engine and Steward Departments. In the Engine Department, incumbent will be working as a Wiper. Duties include maintain working and storage area by wiping down machinery and cleaning oil spills; assist in dismantling and repairing machinery.

Possess a current and valid United States Coast Guard Merchant Mariners Credential with Entry Level ratings:

- Ordinary Seaman, Wiper, Steward Utility (FH)

To apply for job vacancies submit your resume to WMAplicants@NOAA.gov or fax it to 757-441-6495.

Applicants must be U.S. citizens to be considered.
The Department of Commerce is an Equal Opportunity Employer.